++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Bright with sunny spells and scattered showers.

Today:
It will be a bright day with occasional sunny spells and a scattering of showers. Thicker cloud and patchy rain at first over parts of the Borders and northeast. Breezy around the coast and rather cool.

Tonight:
A few showers will linger, but dry of most with some clear spells. Winds with fall light and chilly with a touch of frost possible in sheltered parts by dawn.

Sunday:
Bright with scattered showers during the morning, but rain pushing in from the southwest in the afternoon, heavy at times. The north and northeast dry until late in the day.

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Showers or longer outbreaks of rain on Monday, the heaviest and most persistent rain likely across the north and northeast. Bright spells and a few showers Tuesday and Wednesday.
